

“The club appreciates beauty in everyday objects, taking the time to notice little details—like a letterpressed titlepage or hand torn edges. These little things are the big things in a world where quality is often sacrificed. This club values time, effort, and the extra something-specials that are often overlooked, but make me smile.

Chaz Daum

Book Club Member
Cal Poly Book Collection Competition Winner
Cal Poly Student, Class of 2012,
Graphic Communication and Business

Book Club Member Since: 2012
Sponsor: The BCC
Membership Committee